

VOLUNTARY ARTS CONTRIBUTION FUND

making a big difference

San Francisco isn't just where we live — it's where creativity thrives.

Our theaters, concert halls, galleries, and cinemas make this city a world-class arts destination.

Since 1984, the Voluntary Arts Contribution Fund (VACF), a program of Grants for the Arts, has been powered entirely by residents like you. By donating through Give2SF.org, you help keep the arts vibrant in every neighborhood, from world-renowned institutions to small community stages.

Your contribution helps local arts organizations repair and maintain facilities, make capital improvements, and purchase essential equipment. These behind-the-scenes investments that keep performances happening and creativity flowing.
