The Sourcwell contract is incorporated into this training curriculum, with specific time allocated for its review. Subsequently, focused web-based training modules and e-courses offer procedural instruction for these sales scenarios and serve as ongoing education for associates with more than two years of experience. These resources are available 24/7 through Altec's internal Sales Resource Center, as detailed in the "Marketing Plan - Internal Altec Resources." Website data provides Altec's marketing and IT teams with insights into customer activity and website performance within a single tool. From the marketing standpoint, this data enables analysis of how content moves users and customers through the sales funnel and its impact on lead generation. The information also assists in validating whether the content supports traditional sales teams with accurate details for customers making purchasing decisions. From the IT perspective, the data is used to examine aspects such as mobile usage, operating systems, and load times. These findings guide decision-making regarding priorities for initiatives to develop Altec's digital presence. Additionally, Altec maintains a social media presence on platforms including Facebook and other social networks, where there are over 255,000 likes and follows.	*

We hope this level of support will continue with this new RFP. Our Sourcwell contract is integrated into our sales process as the preferred method of using Cooperative Purchasing. This process includes ensuring that Sourcewell participating entities obtain the proper pricing. This template standardizes our pricing and ensures contract-compliant quotes. Account Managers are responsible for verifying customer eligibility and properly designating opportunities as Sourcewell quotes in our system to ensure accurate pricing and applicable discounts. We regularly conduct quarterly audits of invoiced orders that are flagged as Sourcewell transactions, cross-referencing these customers with official member listings on the Sourcewell website to confirm membership status. This reporting and audit process is managed by Altec Corporate, providing oversight across global operations. Additionally, we perform monthly internal reviews to proactively identify and address any discrepancies prior to finalizing quarterly reports and remitting administrative fees to Sourcewell. Please refer to the attached document, "Quote Example – Previous Contract."
