WHEREAS, the City of Burlingame ("City") wishes to protect the public, safety, welfare, and tranquility of its residents; and

WHEREAS, through its police powers, the City has the authority to impose maintenance obligations on property owners for their property, as well as abutting rights of way; and

WHEREAS, this Ordinance deems dead, dying, or otherwise dangerous privately owned trees and vegetation as public nuisances, subject to enforcement by the City to encourage safety on public property and maintenance of visually appealing properties throughout the City.
